The Ashford Federal

There are many appealing reasons to move up to the Ashford. Space! Drama! Custom class features! Distinctive styling! It all begins in the impressive two story foyer with a grand staircase and balcony overlook. A private study is another welcome addition. Most move up buyers long for larger living and dining rooms. The Ashford provides these in grand style. Other first floor bonuses are 9' ceilings, spacious kitchen with island counter and a huge family room featuring a soaring two story ceiling. Highlighting the second floor is a grand bedroom suite including double door entrance, an immense closet and a lavish, private bath with double bowl sink and garden tub. Count up the reasons and you'll be convinced. The Ashford has everything you want in a move up residence.
